Today's young people are facing a rapidly expanding and equally demanding global community that is literally at their fingertips. Learn how professionals can provide a supportive, positive culture and climate for youth—one that helps build the necessary personal and social development youth need to truly be successful in life.

Learn how to connect relationally with youth while teaching them and reinforcing:

- ⇒ How to make sound decisions;
- ⇒ How to build meaningful relationships with others; and...
- ⇒ That they are capable and significant.

Training is based on the research and writings of H. Stephen Glenn, Ph.D. and Jane Nelsen, Ed.D. Presentation by Brenda Garrett, of Positive Family & Youth Connections— Supporting children and families, and those who serve them with Positive Discipline and Youth Development Training that works!
